

Resources for health professionals

---

Child development

- Centres for Disease Control and Prevention 'Learn and Signs, Act Early' – a program that is designed to improve early identification of developmental delay and disability. The Program Overview provides key background info on the initiative.
- The Royal Children's Hospital Parents' Evaluation of Developmental Status \(PEDS\) - an evidence-based tool for detecting and addressing developmental and behavioural problems in children aged from birth to seven years and 11 months.
- RACGP How to Perform a 'Healthy Kids Check' – information for GPs on how to complete the 4-year-old health check
- Australian Family Physician (AFP) Is my child normal ? Vol 40. No.9 September 2011
- The 'Red Flag' – an early intervention referral guide for children aged 0 to 5
- NSW Child and Family Health Nursing Clinics – directory listing of NSW services
- SESLHD Child and Family Health Nursing –valuable resource for parents and works in partnership with families to provide support, information and health advice
- SLHD Child and Family Health free service staffed by Child and Family Health Nurses who offer health, development and wellbeing checks for children as well as support, education and information on all aspects of parenting.
- SLHD Child health information link – connects parents, carers and health professionals with child and family health services , information and resources on child health development
- SLHD The Well Child health program - supporting GPs keeping families healthy. Includes Category 1 (40 pts) e- learning module.