

An Ageing Medicine Update –anticholinergic burden and the interface between brain and bladder

The Specialists Ageing of Medicine Centre is excited to invite you to an evening meeting directed towards GPs who visit residential care facilities and/or have an special interest in aged care.

Speakers

Dr Tuly Rosenfeld, MBBS FAAG FRACP. Assoc. Prof UNSW Geriatrician at Specialists Ageing Medicine Centre, Randwick and

Dr David Eisinger, MBBS FRACS
Urologist at RPA, Camperdown

Topics

The Brain & Bladder interface – implications and management

Anticholinergic Burden & the Ageing Brain – practical issues in management

Date

Wednesday, 2 May 2018

Time

6.30pm Registration
7-8.30pm Presentation
8.45pm Close

Location

Randwick Specialist Centre
151 Belmore Road
Randwick NSW 2031

Parking

Limited parking available in surrounding streets or 2 hours
free at Royal Randwick
Shopping Centre (6 min walk)

Invitation

RSVP

 Millicent Fox
0411 187 610
 Millicent.fox@astellas-au.com
Fax (02) 9959 4433

Please RSVP by Monday, 31 April 2018

Limited Seats