

Register now for the early-bird registration price

Introduction to Dermoscopy Workshop

Due to overwhelming demand, this event is being re-run. Don't miss your place, register now.

This introduction to dermoscopy workshop will cover:

- How to use a dermoscope
- The difference between polarising and non-polarising dermoscopy
- How to dermoscopically differentiate between benign and malignant lesions using the Three-Point Checklist, Seven-Point Checklist and Chaos and Clues algorithms.
- How to perform a shave biopsy

Event details

- When? 18 October 2018
- Time? arrive 6:30pm for a 7:00pm (SA) start, finishing 9.00pm
 - Other states and territory start time: 7:30pm (ACT, NSW, VIC), 6:30pm (QLD), 6pm (NT), WA 4:30pm (WA)
- Where?
 - International Visualisation Centre. 19 Young St Adelaide.
 - Webinar broadcast available
- Cost?
 - In person attendance
 - Early-bird rate of $139.69 ($120+GST+BF) if register by Friday 14th September 2018
 - $174.34 ($150+GST+BF) if register after 14th September 2018
 - Webinar attendance
 - $87.71($75+GST+BF)
- Coffee and tea will be provided for those attending in-person

Participants are eligible for four (4) Category 2 RACGP CPD points for in-person and webinar attendance. RACGP activity number #141299.

Register for your tickets here.

To those who booked tickets to attend remotely, we will send you a link to access the video conferencing closer to the date.

About the presenter

Dr Paul Annells is a doctor at Melanoma Scan in Toombul and owner of the Melanoma Scan clinics. He holds a BMBS, FRACGP, Master of Medicine Skin Cancer. Dr Annells is a member of the Skin Cancer College of Australia and New Zealand. He has extensive experience in dermoscopy and advance skin cancer surgery. Read more about Dr Annells here.