

Tackling Blood Borne Viruses and Sexually Transmitted Infections

Free introductory workshop to upskill local workforce on hepatitis B & C, sexually transmitted infections including HIV

This workshop will cover:

- Transmission, disease progression, testing, treatment and prevention of hepatitis B & C, HIV and other sexually transmitted infections
- Current and local epidemiology
- Stigma and discrimination
- Personal accounts of living with hepatitis C and HIV
- Referral pathways

This workshop is FREE

Auditorium, Kerry Packer Education Centre, RPA Hospital

Wednesday 14 June 2017, 9:00am – 4:00pm

To RSVP email Azizul.Haque@sswahs.nsw.gov.au with your:

- Name
- Position Title
- Department
- Contact details
- Main work location
- Organisation
- Employee number (SLHD staff only)

By Friday 9 June 2017.

Morning tea, lunch and afternoon tea provided

The workshop is run by the Sexual Health Service, Community Health in partnership with AW Morrow Gastroenterology and Liver Centre